Once upon a time there was a girl called Lexy. That day it was her birthday and that week her grandfather came down for her birthday. When it was time to open her presents she left her grandfather's present till last because he always gave her the best presents ever.

After cake she decided to open her grandfather's present. There was an adventure book it was the best ever. Lexy just scream! That night her grandfather came upstairs to say goodnight. Lexy wished that the day was not over. When he got up there Lexy was looking at the adventure book her grandfather gave her. Then something happened. Magic went in the book and were really tiny. When they walked a little further they saw a beautiful castle with a lovely garden. When they got up the stairs they knocked then this guy came and opens the door. He said 'The master is waiting for you. Go right'. When they got in the room the master was sitting there in his chair. Then he gave them a healing medicine and that was all. Then they were on their way to get back home.

First thing they had to do was to defeat a dragon with a sword but grandfather got hurt. So Lexy used the healing medicine and he was all better. Then they had to get past an army without getting hurt. They just made it in time. After that they made it to some animals and they had to do a song trying to say their names in it. Then they just made it in time so they walked back to the castle and got a wish each they both wish to go home. Then they close the eyes and when they opened them they were back home and Lexy was dreaming what her next birthday what would be like.
